Recommendations for practitioners

- Remain mindful of the barriers that women with learning disabilities face when accessing support for gender-based violence.
- Listen, hear, and validate every woman's experience(s) of gender-based violence.
- Make any reasonable adjustments needed to ensure women with learning disabilities can access equitable support and justice for gender-based violence.