Recommendations for organisations

1. Make a plan for your team to undertake further training in supported decision-making, such as this module.

2. Embed supported decision-making in your organisation's policies and procedures.

3. Include discussions around supported decision-making practices in all staff support and supervision sessions, annual appraisals, and personal development reviews.